PERSONALITY

PROFILE

Ambitious and analytical student at the University of Groningen, driven by curiosity and passion for development & strategy. I thrive in interdisciplinary environments where I can combine critical thinking with project execution, from coordinating initiatives to capturing visual stories through photography. With strong organisational skills and an eye for impact, I seek opportunities that blend finance, innovation and connection.

EXPERIENCE

Logistics & External Relations Officer (IDP) 2024–2025
Led logistical planning for a 20+ student research trip in partnership with Stellenbosch University.
Managed sponsor relations, including collaborations with Heineken, Rabobank, and government agencies.
